School Leadership Today

Incorporating Managing Schools Today and Primary Leadership Today
The complete support package for school decision-makers. An established and respected guide to every aspect of school leadership.

School Leadership Today also provides news, research and analysis of the issues affecting today's school leaders, through its expert articles on how to implement policies and initiatives that will raise pupils' and schools' performance.

Every Child Journal

A new publication that uniquely provides solutions across the education, health and care sectors, to help professionals improve the life chances of vulnerable children. The journal will be your professional handbook, informing, updating and developing school and agency leadership as it implements the Government's 'Children's Plan' and responds creatively to the 21st Century Schools White Paper.

Every Child Update

Every Child Update is an additional service to Every Child Journal. It is a monthly e-bulletin which is emailed direct to your inbox, providing extra information such as legal briefings, official report summaries and research findings, training programmes and courses.

Professional Development Today

Focusing on good practice, research and staff development, in the pages of PDT you will read the latest thinking of writers in professional development who are of world class calibre as well as testimonies from practitioners who make it happen in their schools. This combination of grounded practice, challenging critique and research insights make Professional Development Today the journal to support professional learning for your practitioners.

e-Learning Update

e-Learning Update's aim is to support education professionals in using ICT in the classroom, developing new skills and keeping abreast of the latest news, products and initiatives.

Creative Teaching & Learning

Raising standards of teaching and learning by developing children's thinking skills.

Learning Spaces (formerly C21)

Learning Spaces (formerly C21) is a specialised education design journal supported by the Royal Institute of British Architects and the British Council for School Environments. The magazine uniquely bridges the two worlds of education and business, while reaching key decision-makers and budget holders involved in the Building Schools for the Future programme. Its informative and 'How to' style gives insight into fundamental issues, case studies and authoritative editorial content from experts in the field.

Leadership Briefing

Now you and your whole school leadership team can receive essential summaries, in-depth reports and analysis by email. Leadership Briefing is a weekly online summary of all that's new and relevant to education. It includes original source documents to download or to view on screen.
