

Roman Gods and Goddesses

Jupiter

Jupiter is the King of the Roman Gods. The planet that bears the name Jupiter, does so because it is the largest and most majestic planet.

Juno

Juno was the Queen of the Gods and Jupiter's wife.

Apollo

Apollo was the God of music and is often shown playing a golden lyre. One of Apollo's more important daily tasks was to harness his chariot with four horses and drive the Sun across the sky.

Ceres

Ceres was the Goddess of grain, growing plants and the love that a mother has for her child.

Diana

Diana was Goddess of the Moon and the mother of wild animals and forests.

Mars

Mars was the Roman God of war.

Mercury

Mercury was the Roman God of commerce. Mercury was also the messenger of the Gods. He used winged sandals to help him get around faster.

Neptune

Neptune was the God of the sea.

Pluto

Pluto was the Roman God of the underworld. He was believed to be the God that places precious metals and other treasures in the Earth.

Saturn

Saturn was Jupiter's father. He was King of the Gods before Jupiter and his brothers, Neptune and Pluto, decided to overthrow him.

Venus

Venus, daughter of Jupiter and Dione, was the Roman Goddess of love.